MRS. PEREZ RELEASED FROM HOSPITAL

(August 12, 2005)--- Maria Perez is coming home from the hospital today. The wife of Hartford Mayor Eddie Perez has been discharged from New York Presbyterian Hospital in New York City. On Wednesday, Mrs. Perez underwent surgery to clip brain aneurysms. Although she will be resting at home, Mrs. Perez will continue to be under medical supervision and will not be able to receive visitors.

Mayor Perez will be at his wife's side as she continues to recover. He will oversee government matters concerning the City, but is not scheduled to be in the office until Tuesday.

The Perez Family would like to thank everyone for their outpouring of support including the countless prayers, cards, and emails.
